Name ______

1. What did the Lutherans never intend to do? (2 points)

- 2. What is the relationship between the writings of the church fathers and the Scriptures? (2 points)
- 3. In what way do Lutherans "accept" the early councils? (2 points)

- 4. What about the non-doctrinal statements(canons)? How do the Lutherans regard them? (2 points)
- 5. What does the preface to the Augsburg Confession desire, but the preface to the Book of Concord does not? (2 points)
- 6. What is the date for the entire Book of Concord? (extra credit)

Answers to Quiz #5

- 1. They never intended to adopt a new confession or doctrine
- 2. The church fathers are witnesses to Scriptural doctrines.
- 3. We pledge ourselves to their teaching and reject the heresies they condemn when they speak "on the basis of the Scriptures."
- 4. We are wiling to keep ecclesiastical and canonical polity to foster harmony. We will not change them without good reason.
- 5. The preface to the Augsburg Confession(1530) desires a General Church Council. Fifty years later the preface to the Book of Concord does not even mention it.
- 6. 1580