Extra Credit: Explain the connect between the promise and historical knowledge?

1. The promise or the Gospel (Not the Bible, Not God-His mere existence, Not the law)
2. They are always convinced that they have fully done it.
3. They are always in doubt and never comforted, because they know they haven't done it.
4. They should be given the law in order to show them their sins.
5. They should be given the gospel(promise) to believe in Christ who has done it for them.
6. The promise includes the purpose of the history. The history is needed(e. g. Christ died), but the promise (e.g. He died to forgive you your sins) is why those facts are to be trusted. God adds his promise that through faith, we are to believe Christ has saved us.
