	2. No one can keep the law.
	3. Once saved, believers can keep the law.
	4. Christ is our Mediator even after we are renewed.
	5. God is pleased with believers because they do good works.
	6. A believer's fulfilling of the law is inchoate.
	7. Wicked desires in the flesh of believers are not sins.
	8. Love fulfills the law and thus is righteousness.
	9. The law requires spiritual movements of the heart.
	10. The Law ought to be begun in believers and be kept by them more and more.

Extra Credit: What is missing in the false human opinion of the law, which prevents us from thinking rightly of God?

1. T, 2. T, 3. F, 4. T, 5. F, 6. T, 7. F, 8. T, 9. T, 10. T
Extra Credit. The false human opinion is that civil, external works justify. They miss that the law requires the spiritual movements of the heart (fear and love of God), which man cannot produce. Those are worked by the Holy Spirit who is received through faith in Christ.
