

Name _____

Quiz #36 (6/7/20)

Luther says that there are two reasons that pastors are very negligent in teaching the catechism. What are they?

1.

2.

3. What is the reason some of the nobility give for allowing parishes to fall into decay and pastors to suffer distress and hunger?

4-5. What does Luther do every morning/evening and whenever he has time?

6. Regarding the Small Catechism, what is impossible to do in this life?

7. If the devil is called the master of a thousand arts. What shall we call God's Word, which drives away and brings to naught this master of a thousand arts with all his arts and power?

Fill in the blank

8. The Catechism is a compend and brief summary of all _____.

9. And what, indeed, is the entire _____ but thoughts and exercises upon the First Commandment?

10. They should not cease learning the Catechism "until they have made a test and are sure that they have taught _____ to death, and have become more learned than _____ Himself and all His saints.

Extra Credit. "However, for the common people we are satisfied with the _____ parts, which have remained in Christendom from of old, though little of it has been taught and treated correctly until both young and old, who are called and wish to be Christians, are well trained in them and familiar with them."

1. Some from great and high art (giving their mind, as they imagine, to much higher matters], but
 2. others from sheer laziness and care for their paunches,
 3. There is no longer any need either of pastors or preachers; We have everything in books.
 - 4-5. "[7] .. I am also a doctor and preacher, yea, as learned and experienced as all those may be who have such presumption and security; yet I do as a child who is being taught the Catechism, and every morning, and whenever I have time, I read and say, word for word, the Ten Commandments, the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Psalms, etc. And I must still read and study daily, and yet I cannot master it as I wish, [8] but must remain a child and pupil of the Catechism, and am glad so to remain."
 6. "For though they should know and understand it perfectly which, however, is impossible in this life...."
 7. "The devil is called the master of a thousand arts. But what shall we call God's Word, which drives away and brings to naught this master of a thousand arts with all his arts and power? It must indeed be the master of more than a hundred thousand arts."
 8. The Catechism, which is a compend and brief summary of all the Holy Scriptures.
 9. And what, indeed, is the entire Psalter but thoughts and exercises upon the First Commandment?
 10. They should not cease learning the Catechism "until they have made a test and are sure that they have taught the devil to death, and have become more learned than God Himself and all His saints.
- Extra Credit. "However, for the common people we are satisfied with the three parts, which have remained in Christendom from of old, though little of it has been taught and treated correctly until both young and old, who are called and wish to be Christians, are well trained in them and familiar with them."