Welcome to Trinity

#46 In Human Ordinances There Is Great Freedom to Change

Nevertheless, there should be freedom here: for instance, if we are unable, because of an emergency or another significant reason, to preach at six or seven, at twelve or one o'clock, on Sunday or Monday, in the choir or at St. Peter's, one may preach at a different hour, day, or place, just as long as one does not confuse the people, but properly apprises them of such a change. These matters are purely external (as far as time, place, and persons are concerned) and may be regulated entirely by reason, to which they are altogether subject. God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit are not interested in them—just as little as they are interested in what we wish to eat, drink, wear, and whom we marry, or where we want to dwell, walk, or stand; except that (as was said) no one should, without reason, adopt his own way and confuse or hinder the people. Just as at a wedding or other social event no one should offend the bride or the company by doing something special or something that interferes, but one should join the rest, and sit, walk, stand, dance, eat, and drink with them. For it is impossible to order a special table for each individual, and also a special kitchen, cellar, and servant. If he wants anything, let him leave the table without disturbing the others. Thus here too everything must be conducted peacefully and in order, and yet there must be freedom if time, person, or other reasons demand a change; then the masses will also follow harmoniously, since (as was said) no Christian is thereby made any more or less holy. (Luther's Works, v.41, p.174)

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Introit

*Hear, O LORD, when I cry | with my voice!

Have mercy also upon me, and | answer me.

*You have | been my help;

do not leave me nor forsake me, O God of my sal- | vation.

The LORD is my light and my sal- | vation;*

whom | shall I fear?

Teach me Your | way, O LORD,*

and lead me in a | smooth path.

Do not deliver me to the will of my adver- | saries;*

for false witnesses have risen a- | gainst me.

Wait on the LORD; be of good | courage,*

and He shall streng- | then your heart.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Hear, O LORD, when I cry | with my voice!*

Have mercy also upon me, and | answer me.

You have | been my help;*

do not leave me nor forsake me, O God of my sal- | vation.

(Psalm 27:1, 11-12, 14; Antiphon: Psalm 27:7,9)

Collect

O God, who has prepared for those that love You such good things as pass man's understanding, pour into our hearts such love toward You that we, loving You above all things, may obtain Your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

1 Kings 19:11-21

The LORD appears to Elijah

Gradual

O God, be- | hold our shield,*
and look upon the face of
Your a- | nointed.

O LORD God of hosts, | hear my prayer;*

give ear, O God of | Jacob! (Psalm 84:9, 8)

1 Peter 3:8-15

Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts

Followed by Alleluia Verse, p.140

St. Luke 5:1-11

You will Catch Men

Followed by The Nicene Creed, p. 141

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving.—that our heavenly Father use the hearing of His Word to create and strengthen our faith in His Son, who forgives sin and declares “do not be afraid” of His holiness.

The Church and her servants.—Gather sinners into your church by the foolish message of the cross. Catch men alive from the deep chaotic waters of miracle seekers and worldly wisdom and bring them into the safety of your church. Use your people to bear witness to the message by their hearing and godly living.

--Continue to strengthen by your absolution, our bishop, James Heiser, and our Pastors Michael Henson and Gary Harroun so that they may not be concerned with their sinful unworthiness, but would use the Word to save men.

--For our Director, Keely Gelso; For our teachers, assistants and support staff; for those who volunteer in taking care of the children and maintaining the facility; for those who give financial and prayer support; for those on the Board of Education.

-- Holy Cross Ev. Lutheran Church (Peoria, IL), Pastor Douglas Handrich

--For the enemies of the church and those who would hinder its divine mission, that their hearts may be turned to the Lord of mercy and compassion

The nations of the world and their rulers.—For our president, Donald Trump and the congress of the United States, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and state legislators, our mayor, Steve Frattini and city officials, and all our judges, that they would act wisely and responsibly, and that we would carry out our duties as citizens.

--For the soldiers, marines, airmen, sailors, and special forces—especially Timothy R. Eichenseer, Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, Blake Darnstaedt, and Jack Anglin, as well as our police officers Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne—who put their lives in harm's way in order to defend our freedoms we ask that God would protect them from all danger and lift their spirits during their times of trial.

--For the mentally challenged and the institutions which serve them, that through these agencies of mercy their needs of mind, body, and soul might be met, equipping them to live as disciples in God's steadfast love. For the mentally ill and those who are suicidal, that they may be received and sustained by the body of Christ as it offers the water of life to allay their suffering.

-- You are the consolation of the sorrowful and the strength of the weak, look upon the tribulation and distress of those affected by the coronavirus. Comfort those who have lost loved ones, provide care for those infected and calm the worries of the timid, so that in their necessities they may observe and receive your manifold help and comfort. For those who are discouraged because of a lack of employment, in your mercy, raise up opportunity for businesses and work, that in peace and thanksgiving all people may earn and eat the bread of contentment.

For the Church, General 5

O THOU Who art great and highly to be praised: Spread abroad the faith of Thy Church into all realms, to the end, that as in all its degrees Thou art acknowledged to be GOD, Thou mayest also be praised in the united devotion of her members; receive of Thy mercy, her prayers, and in the midst of the tempests of this world, be Thou her watchful Pilot, so that we may by Thy mercy enter that City which Thou hast founded for ever and ever, and may be received therein, and may tell within its towers Thy marvelous works; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. (Oremus, 1925, p.68).
