Welcome to Trinity

#48 We Observe Moderation in Human Ordinances

We will regard these externals as we do a christening robe or swaddling clothes in which a child is clad for baptism. The child is not baptized or sanctified either by the christening robe or by the swaddling clothes, but only by the baptism. And yet reason dictates that a child be thus clothed. If this garment is soiled or torn, it is replaced by another, and the child grows up without any help from swaddling clothes or christening robe. Here too one must exercise moderation and not use too many of these garments, lest the child be smothered. Similarly, moderation should also be observed in the use of ceremonies, lest they become a burden and a chore. They must remain so light that they are not felt, just as at a wedding no one thinks it a chore or a burden to conform his actions to those of the other people present. I shall write on the special fasts when I write about the plague of the Germans, gluttony and drunkenness, for that properly belongs in the sphere of temporal government. (Luther’s Works, v.41, p.175)

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that our Savior Jesus Christ sustains and satisfies the bodily needs of those who love Him and devote themselves to His teaching.

The Church and her servants.—that the church might truly see the bread of our sinful world as a wilderness unable to give or sustain life. And furthermore that she would cling to and be satisfied with Jesus Christ (and his words) as the Bread of life which comes down from heaven.

--teach all pastors in Christ, including our bishop, James Heiser, our pastors Michael Henson and Gary Harroun to feed God's people with the unadulterated Word.

--Salem Lutheran Church (Malone, TX), Bishop and Pastor James D. Heiser, Deacon Anthony Oncken

--Bless our Early Childhood Learning Center, our Director, Keely Gelso.

--For the enemies of the church and those who would hinder its divine mission, that their hearts may be turned to the Lord of mercy and compassion

The nations of the world and their rulers.—Bless our land with honest industry, truthful education, and an honorable way of life. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil course of action. Defend our liberties. Give those who have been entrusted with the authority of government--our president, Donald Trump, and the congress of the United States, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and state legislators, and our mayor, Steve Frattini—the spirit of wisdom that there may be justice and peace in our land. Give our police officers especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, as well as our judges the will and ability to maintain law, order, and justice. When time are prosperous, let our hearts be thankful; and in troubled times do not let our trust in you fail.

--Protect those who serve in the armed forces— especially Timothy R. Eichenseer, Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, Blake Darnstaedt, and Jack Anglin—that they may diligently carry out their duties and be protected from all harm and danger.

For the Anniversary of Ordination.
 O GOD, by Whose command the order of all time runs its course: Look graciously upon me Thy servant, whom Thou hast been pleased to call to Thy service, and that my service may be pleasing unto Thee, do Thou mercifully preserve in me Thy gifts ; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.
 (Oremus, 1925, p.74).
