#50 Schools are Second in Importance Only To The Church

In summary, the schools must be second in importance only to the church, for in them young preachers and pastors are trained, and from them emerge those who replace the ones who die. Next, then, to the school comes the burgher’s house, for it supplies the pupils; then the city hall and the castle, which must protect the schools so that they may train children to become pastors, and so that these, in turn, may create churches and children of God (whether they be burghers, princes, or emperors). But God must be over all and nearest to all, to preserve this ring or circle against the devil, and to do everything in all of life’s vocations, indeed, in all creatures. Thus Psalm 127 [:1] says that there are only two temporal governments on earth, that of the city and that of the home, “Unless the Lord builds the house; unless the Lord watches over the city.” The first government is that of the home, from which the people come; the second is that of the city, meaning the country, the people, princes and lords, which we call the secular government. These embrace everything—children, property, money, animals, etc. The home must produce, whereas the city must guard, protect, and defend. Then follows the third, God’s own home and city, that is, the church, which must obtain people from the home and protection and defense from the city. (Luther’s Works, v.41, p.176-177)

- because You know that we require daily sustenance and have promised to supply what our earthly bodies need, permit us to trust Your Word that we may not worry about what we will eat or drink, but always give thanks for what You provide.
- Grant Your blessing upon all the schools of our land. To the teachers give diligence and a love for their students, and grant an eagerness for their students to learn. Keep our schools safe from all violence, and thwart the evil plans of those who would lead our children astray. Grant Your holy people opportunities to witness to Your love both through their words and their deeds.
- Protect those who serve in the armed forces especially Timothy R. Eichenseer, Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, that they may diligently carry out their duties and be protected from all harm and danger.
