#59 The True Church Honors the Government

Seventh, nobody can deny that with the ancient church we hold and teach that one should honor and not curse the temporal powers and should not compel them to kiss the pope’s feet. This is also not something which we have newly devised, for St. Peter in II Peter 2 [:10] curses those who would invent and in the future do such new things. And St. Paul is with us in Romans 13 [:1–7], as is the whole of ancient Christendom, so that in this we are not, nor may we be called, innovators—as the papists call us, thereby not only slandering us, but God himself. But we are and belong to the ancient, holy, and apostolic church, as its true children and members. For we have always most faithfully taught obedience to our temporal authority, be it emperor or princes. We ourselves have lived accordingly and prayed for them with all our heart. (Luther’s Works, v.41, p.196-197)

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Introit

Give peace, O Lord, to those who / wait for You.*

and let Your prophets be proven / faithful.

Hear the prayer of Your / servants,*

according to the blessing of Aaron upon Your / people.

I was glad when they / said to me,*

“Let us go into the house / of the Lord.”

Pray for the peace of Je- / rusalem:*

“May they prosper who / love you.

For the sake of my brethren and com- / panions,*

I will now say, “Peace be with- / in you.”

Because of the house of the / Lord our God*

I will / seek your good.

Glory be to the Father and / to the Son*

and to the Holy / Spirit

as it was in the be / ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. / Amen.

Give peace, O Lord, to those who / wait for You:*

and let Your prophets be proven / faithful.

Hear the prayer of Your / servants,*

according to the blessing of Aaron upon Your / people.

(Antiphon, Ecclesiasticus 36:16-17a; Psalm 122:1, 6, 8-9)

Collect

O God, forasmuch as without You we are not able to please You, mercifully grant that Your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN

Deuteronomy 10:12-21

What does God require of you?

Gradual

I was glad when they / said to me,*

“Let us go into the house / of the Lord.”

“Peace be with- / in your walls,*

prosperity within your / palaces.”

(Psalm 122:1, 7)

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

Followed by Alleluia Verse, p.140

Called into fellowship

Followed by The Nicene Creed, p. 141

The great commandment

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that Jesus Christ completely fulfilled the law of love by his obedience to the heavenly Father and by his suffering and death for our salvation.

The Church and her servants.—That the church might not only speak clearly about the un-keepable demands of the law, but also tell the Good News about the perfect love of the God-man Jesus Christ.
--Grant Your Holy Spirit to all pastors, our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael D. Henson and Gary K. Harroun, that they may be wise stewards of the incomparable treasures of Word & Sacrament properly dividing law and Gospel.
--By Your Spirit increase in us a genuine love of Your Word and a true understanding of the person and work of Christ our Savior.
-- Saint Paul Lutheran Church, UAC (Taylorsville, NC), Pastor David Carver
--That our Early Childhood Learning Center, and our director, Keely Gelso would teach the children about the son of David, Jesus Christ, our God.

The nations of the world and their rulers. -O Ruler of all, give governments around the world, and especially the government of the United States, guidance, integrity, and a willingness to act out of love and care for the people they serve. Protect our president, Donald Trump, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, our mayor, Steve Frattini, and all our leaders from mere self-interest that they may faithfully serve the common good.

--Protect those who serve in the armed forces, especially Timothy R. Eichenseer, Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, that they may diligently carry out their duties and be protected from all harm and danger.

For Contentment. 1

GRANT, O Lord, that Thy servants, devoted to Thy service, and confiding in Thy protection, may obtain the blessing which they humbly implore; that being at rest under Thy defense, they may not be left destitute of assistance for this life, and may be prepared for the good things which are eternal; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. (Oremus, 1925, p.65-66).

The Lord's Supper

Trinity Lutheran Church observes the Scriptural practice (Eph 4:3, 2 John 1:10-11) of communing only with those for whom their public profession of faith (congregational membership) is in agreement with God's Word and the correct exposition of Holy Scripture as found in the Book of Concord (1580). All who desire to receive Christ's Body and Blood for the forgiveness of sins are asked to speak with Pastor Henson before coming forward to commune.

Trinity Lutheran Church is served by pastors who are members of the Evangelical Lutheran Diocese of North America (Eldona.org).

--Those who are members of Eldona-affiliated congregations are welcome to commune after announcing to Pastor Henson.

--Those who are not members of Eldona-affiliated congregations will need to set up an appointment with Pastor Henson to discuss their public church membership.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Trinity Lutheran Church in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until He comes.

Those who are not yet invited to receive the Sacrament are encouraged to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when our divisions will have ceased.

Listening to the children play the organ.
