#44 When Suffering Give Your Greatest Attention to the Promise

So in our suffering we should so act that we give our greatest attention to the promise, in order that our cross and affliction may be turned to good, to something which we could never have asked or thought. And this is precisely the thing which makes a difference between the Christian’s suffering and afflictions and those of all other men. For other people also have their afflictions, cross, and misfortune, just as they also have their times when they can sit in the rose garden and employ their good fortune and their goods as they please. But when they run into affliction and suffering, they have nothing to comfort them, for they do not have the mighty promises and the confidence in God which Christians have. Therefore they cannot comfort themselves with the assurance that God will help them to bear the affliction, much less can they count on it that he will turn their affliction and suffering to good. (Luther’s Works, v.51, p.201)

The Lord’s Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God’s Word and for God’s people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Introit

*The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom | shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I | be afraid?

*When the wicked came a- | gainst me,
my enemies and foes, they stum- | bled and fell.

Though an army may encamp a- | gainst me,*
my heart | shall not fear;
though war should rise a- | gainst me,*
in this I will be | confident.

One thing I have desired of the LORD, that | will I seek:*

that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days | of my life,

for in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pa- | vilion;*

he shall set me high up- | on a rock.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom | shall I fear?*

The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I | be afraid?

When the wicked came a- | gainst me,*
my enemies and foes, they stum- | bled and fell.

(Psalm 27:3–5; Antiphon: Psalm 27:1–2)

Collect

Grant, O Lord, we implore You, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Your governance, that Your Church may joyfully serve You in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

Genesis 50:15-21

The Death of Jacob

Gradual

Make atonement for our | sins, O Lord*

lest the nations say, “Where | is their God?”

Help us, O God of our sal- | vation,*

for the glory of Your name, de- | liver us. (Ps 79:9–10)

Romans 8:18-23

Present Sufferings

Followed by Alleluia Verse, p.140

St. Luke 6:36-42

Be Merciful

Followed by The Nicene Creed, p. 141

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that our merciful heavenly Father does not rightly condemn us, but forgives us our sins through His Son Jesus Christ.

The Church and her servants.— that all pastors in Christ, including our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael Henson and Gary Harroun would not be blind guides, but be ever studying God’s Word that they might be fully-trained to lead us in the way of truth.

--that those who have been taught the truth of God’s Word would not judge others while they themselves continue to sin, but would instead be merciful to their brother just as they have received mercy.

--For our Director, Keely Gelso, for our teachers, our assistants and support staff.

The nations of the world and their rulers.—For our president, Joe Biden, and the congress of the United States, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and state legislators, our mayor, Steve Frattini and city officials, and all our judges, that they would act wisely and responsibly, and that we would carry out our duties as citizens.

--We acknowledge with gratitude the gift of a free country as Your good gift. We thank you for those who laid down their lives for the sake of our nation. Let us never take for granted those sacrifices. Help us to live as good and obedient citizens, taking advantage of our liberty to freely worship you. Watch over the men and women of our armed forces— especially Danny Cobin,

Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, as well as our police officers Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne —and keep them from harm and danger

--You are the consolation of the sorrowful and the strength of the weak, look upon the tribulation and distress of those affected by the coronavirus. Comfort those who have lost loved ones, provide care for those infected and calm the worries of the timid, so that in their necessities they may observe and receive your manifold help and comfort. For those who are discouraged because of a lack of employment, in your mercy, raise up opportunity for businesses and work, that in peace and thanksgiving all people may earn and eat the bread of contentment.

Communion Psalm: Ant. I will speak of all thy marvelous works, O Lord: I will be glad and rejoice in thee: yea, my songs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Highest. (Psalm 9:1-2). Psalm 9.

For the Spirit of Prayer.

O GOD of hope, the true Light of faithful souls, and perfect Brightness of the blessed, Who art verily the Light of the Church: Grant that my heart may both render Thee a. worthy prayer, and always glorify Thee with the offering of praise; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.39).

Eldona Summer Camp

Eldona Summer Camp for 2021 is being planned for July 19-23 in Kerrville, Texas. Family Camp is open to all youth, young adults, and families of the diocese (and friends). It is a great opportunity to meet other people from diocesan congregations, learn God’s Word and the Church’s confession. There will be daily activities, classes, and games. La Quinta in Kerrville will be the hotel and meals will take place at the church. Let Pastor Henson know if you are planning on attending. This year’s program will take us through the church calendar, its feasts and festivals, saints and martyrs, to show why the Church marks time the way she does. We will also make a special trip to Enchanted Rock State Park for the final day of Camp.

Thee a - lone, And strength for ho - ly liv - ing.
fear and grief And dark de - spair to per - ish.
peace af - ford; Thy word is all my sol - ace.

4 This word, forever precious, saith
The humble, contrite mind
That looks to Thee in simple faith
Shall full salvation find;
And then, from sin's dominion free,
Display true thankfulness to Thee,
Devoted to Thy glory.

5 To Thee I come at Thy behest,
Atoner of my sin!
Forgiveness and the promised rest
Through Thy desert to win.
Be merciful, my God, to me,
And let no more remembered be
The days of sin and folly.
