#42 Suffering Works for A Christian’s Good and Advantage

Furthermore, every Christian should submit himself to this suffering that he is sure that it will work for his good and that Christ, for his Word’s sake, will not only help us to bear this suffering but also turn and transform it to our advantage. And again what makes this cross more agreeable and bearable for us is the fact that our dear God is ready to pour so many refreshing aromatics and cordials into our hearts that we are able to bear all our afflictions and tribulations, just as St. Paul says in I Cor. 10 [:13], “God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your strength, but with the temptation will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.” This is true. When the suffering and affliction is at its worst, it bears and presses down so grievously that one thinks he can endure no more and must surely perish. But then if you can think of Christ, the faithful God will come and will help you, as he has always helped his own from the beginning of the world; for he is the same God as he always has been. (Luther’s Works, v.51, p.200)

The Lord’s Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

The LORD was | my support.*

In the day of my ca- | lamity

O Lord, who never fails to help and govern those whom You bring up in Your steadfast fear and love, make us to have a perpetual fear and love of Your holy name; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving.—that our heavenly Father from eternity has lovingly prepared a feast of grace, that Jesus Christ in time fulfilled the will of his Father and the feast of forgiveness is now ready, and that the Holy Spirit sends out Prophets, Apostles, and Pastors to announce this good news saying, “Come, for everything is now ready.”

The Church and her servants.—Create in us a new heart that we may not cling to our idols of possessions, business and family and thus make excuses for despising your Gospel message which is offered in the preaching of the Word, confession and absolution, holy baptism and the feast of Lord’s Supper.

--that all pastors in Christ—including our bishop, James Heiser, our pastors, Michael Henson and Gary Harroun—would clearly emphasize the benefit, need, usefulness, and blessings of God’s Word and sacraments, as well as the harm and danger of neglecting it.

--that all God’s people would use their gifts of possessions, business, and family as a means to speak the Gospel and invite others to the feast of the kingdom.

--For our Director, Keely Gelso, for our teachers, our assistants and support staff.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— We commend to your care, our president, Joe Biden, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, our mayor, Steve Frattini and city officials, and to all our judges that they may rule and govern in godliness and honesty.

--For the soldiers, marines, airmen, sailors, and special forces—especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, as well as our police officers Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, —who put their lives in harm’s way in order to defend our freedoms we ask that God would protect them from all danger and lift their spirits during their times of trial.

-- You are the consolation of the sorrowful and the strength of the weak, look upon the tribulation and distress of those affected by the coronavirus. Comfort those who have lost loved ones, provide care for those infected and calm the worries of the timid, so that in their necessities they may observe and receive your manifold help and comfort. For those who are discouraged because of a lack of employment, in your mercy, raise up opportunity for businesses and work, that in peace and thanksgiving all people may earn and eat the bread of contentment.

Eldona Summer Camp

Eldona Summer Camp for 2021 is being planned for July 19-23 in Kerrville, Texas. Family Camp is open to all youth, young adults, and families of the diocese (and friends). It is a great opportunity to meet other people from diocesan congregations, learn God’s Word and the Church’s confession. There will be daily activities, classes, and games. La Quinta in Kerrville will be the hotel and meals will take place at the church. Let Pastor Henson know if you are planning on attending. This year’s program will take us through the church calendar, its feasts and festivals, saints and martyrs, to show why the Church marks time the way she does. We will also make a special trip to Enchanted Rock State Park for the final day of Camp.

To Pray Aright.
 O LORD, I beseech Thee to look upon Thy servant, whom Thou hast enabled to put his trust in Thee; and grant him both to ask such things as shall please Thee, and through Thy love, obtain the same; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.38).

EL #277

The mouth of fools doth God confess

1 The mouth of fools doth God confess, But while their lips draw nigh Him,

Their heart is full of wick-ed-ness, And all their deeds de - ny Him.

Cor - rupt are they, and ev' - ry one A - bo - mi - na - ble works hath done; There is not one well - do - er.

2 The Lord looked from His heav'nly throne

On all mankind below Him,
To see if there were any one
Who truly sought to know Him,
And all his understanding bent
To search His holy Word, intent
To do His will in earnest.

3 But none there was who walked with God,
For all aside had slidden,
Delusive paths of folly trod,
And followed lusts forbidden;
Not one there was who practiced good,
Though many deemed, in haughty mood,
Their deeds to God were pleasing.

4 How long, by folly
blindly led,

Will they oppress the needy,
And eat my people up like bread?
So fierce are they and greedy!
In God they put no trust at all,
Nor will on Him in trouble call,
But be their own providers.

5 Therefore their heart is never still,
A constant fear dismays them,
God is with him who doth His will,
Who trusts Him and obeys Him;
Ye shame the counsel of the poor,
And mock him when he doth assure
That God is e'er his refuge.

6 Who shall to Israel's outcast race

From Zion bring salvation?
God will Himself at length show grace
And loose the captive nation;
That will He do by Christ their King;
Let Jacob then be glad and sing,
And Isra-el be joyful.

Ps. 12
