#50 Give Yourself to Scripture And All Will Be Better

If you give yourself to Scripture, you will feel comfort and all your concerns will be better, which otherwise you cannot control by any act or means of your own. After all, a merchant can bring himself, for the sake of gaining money and wealth, to leave house and home, wife and child, and risk his life for the sake of filthy lucre, and still have no sure promise or assurance that he will return home in health to wife and child; and yet he is foolhardy and rash enough to venture boldly into such danger without any promise whatsoever. Now, if a merchant can do that for money and riches, fie upon you, that we should not want to bear a little cross and still want to be Christians, even though besides we have in our hands the tree to which we cling against the waves, namely, the Word and the fine strong promises that we shall not be overwhelmed by the waves....

Now if the merchant ... can muster up such courage to take upon himself ... and suffer such peril, effort, and labor, we should be simply ashamed that we rebel against suffering and the cross, even though we know, in the first place, that God has appointed that we should suffer and that it cannot be otherwise. In the second place, we also know our promise and assurance, that, even though we are not such good Christians as we ought to be and are timid and weak both in life and faith, He will nevertheless defend his Word simply because it is his Word. THE TENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Introit

As for me, I will call upon God, and He shall | hear my voice.
He has redeemed my | soul in peace.
Cast your burden | on the LORD,*
and He shall sus- | tain you.*

Give ear to my | prayer, O God,*
and do not hide Yourself from my suppli- | cation.
My heart is severely pained with- | in me,*
and the terrors of death have fallen up- | on me.
Fearfulness and trembling have come up- | on me,*
and horror has over- | whelmed me.
I will pray, and | cry aloud,*
and the LORD shall | save me.
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
As for me, I will call upon God, and He shall | hear my voice.*
He has redeemed my | soul in peace.
Cast your burden | on the LORD,*
and He shall sus- | tain you.

(Psalm 55:1, 4-5, 17, 16; Antiphon: Psalm 55:16-18, 22)

Collect

O God, as You declare Your almighty power above all in showing mercy and pity, mercifully grant unto us such a measure of Your grace that we may obtain Your gracious promises and be made partakers of Your heavenly treasures; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

Jeremiah 8:4-12

The Word of God Rejected

Gradual

Keep me as the apple | of Your eye;*

hide me under the shadow | of Your wings.
Let my vindication come from Your | presence;*
let Your eyes look on the things that | are upright.
(Psalm 17:8, 2)

Jesus Weeps

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. — that our heavenly Father has redeemed us in the gracious visitation of His Son, Jesus Christ, who is our peace.

The Church and her servants.—Give your holy believers zeal for your house that we may recognize Jesus' coming to us in Holy Baptism and Holy Absolution, in the catechization (teaching) of your Word, and in the Body and Blood of Your Son, Jesus Christ.
--Bless all pastors, our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael Henson and Gary Harroun, in order that they would teach us to heed your coming so that we daily confess our sins and daily cling to the Word of forgiveness in Christ.
--Grant safe travel for Bishop Heiser as he comes to examine the teaching and practice of our pastors.
--Use Trinity's Early Childhood Learning Center to teach the children the way of repentance unto eternal life. Bless our Director, Keely Gelso.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— We commend to your care our president, Donald Trump, and the congress of the United States, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and state legislators, our mayor, Steve Frattini, and city officials, and all our judges that they may rule and govern in godliness and honesty.

--Protect those who serve in the armed forces, especially Timothy R. Eichenseer, Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, that they may diligently carry out their duties and be protected from all harm and danger.

-Grant Your blessing upon all the schools of our land. To the teachers give diligence and a love for their students, and grant an eagerness for their students to learn. Keep our schools safe from all violence, illness, and thwart the evil plans of those who would lead our children astray. Grant Your holy people opportunities to witness to Your love both through their words and their deeds.

Particular local needs.—

Communion Psalm: Ant. He that eats my flesh, and drinks my blood, dwells in Me, and I in him, says the Lord. (Jn 6:56). Psalm 50.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

Bishop Heiser Visitation.—Bp. Heiser will be here to meet with the congregation on Sunday, August 15. He will preach at the 10:15 service. We will have pizza, salad, and dessert following the Divine Service. Bp.

Heiser will give an hour presentation, following the meal.

For Consecration 4.

LIVING or dying, Lord, I would be Thine: Keep me Thine forever, and draw me day by day nearer to Thyself, until I be wholly filled with Thy love, and fitted to be- hold Thee face to face; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.41).

JUDGMENT

The World Is Very Evil

4 Strive, man, to win that glory;
 Toil, man, to gain that light;
 Send hope before to grasp it
 Till hope be lost in sight.
 Exult, O dust and ashes,
 The Lord shall be thy part;
 His only, His forever,
 Thou shalt be and thou art.

5 O sweet and blessed country,
 The home of God's elect!
 O sweet and blessed country
 That eager hearts expect!
 Jesus, in mercy bring us
 To that dear land of rest,
 Who art, with God the Father
 And Spirit, ever blest.

Luther's Bible Translations - 1522

Das Neue Testament Deutsch

The "September Testament" / "December Testament"

In September, 1522, Luther published the first edition of his translation of the New Testament. He had begun that during his stay at the Wartburg, in eleven weeks from December 1521 to February 1522, but it was revised in collaboration with Melancthon and others after he had returned to Wittenberg. Some 3-5,000 copies were printed and by December, 1522, a second edition, called the December Testament had to be published. The price was one guilder, which corresponded to two months' salary for a schoolmaster. By the time Luther published the complete Bible in 1534, 87 editions of his New Testament had been published in High German and some 19 in Low German. More than 200,000 copies had been sold.

Luther's translation was based on the second edition of the Greek text edited by Erasmus in 1519. He put Hebrews and James at the end of the testament, with Jude and Revelation, to underline what he considered as the secondary character of these books. A marginal note at Matt 5:19 refers to those who break the commandments rather than following them as "Papisten hauff" (a heap of papists). 21 illustrations from the workshop of Lucas Cranach the Elder show that the language of the book of Revelation is to be taken metaphorically. The whore of Babylon (the anti-Christ) is equated with the Pope.
