#64 In this World, We Struggle and Suffer for the Sake of the Godly

For the devil is lord of the world. I myself could never believe this, that the devil should be the lord and god of the world. But I experienced often enough that this too is an article of faith: He is "prince of the world, god of this age." However—God be praised—this is not believed by the children of men, and I myself do not fully believe it. For everyone thinks he knows best and hopes that the devil is beyond the ocean and God is tucked in our pocket.

But it is for the sake of the godly who wish to be saved that we must live, preach, write, do, and suffer all. Otherwise, if one contemplates the devil and the false brethren, it seems better not to preach, to write, or to do anything, but only to die early and be buried. For they pervert and revile all things and convert them into objects of offense and damage, just as the devil drives and leads them to do. It is inevitable that we struggle and suffer. We cannot be any better than the dear prophets and apostles who also had the same experience. (Luther's Works, v.47, p.113-114)

In Danger.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who in our tribulation are yet of good cheer because of Thy loving kindness, may find Thee mighty to save from all dangers; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.57).

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that our Heavenly Father uses trials and suffering to strengthen our weak faith so that strengthened we cling to Christ and Him alone, as He is revealed in His Word.

The Church and her servants.—Give your church great faith so that all her members are faithful in attending service and rejoice in opportunities to learn the faith so that God can use them to teach their household and their neighbors.

-- teach our bishop, James Heiser, all pastors in Christ, including our Pastors Gary K Harroun and Michael D. Henson, so that they are not satisfied with the weak faith of their members, but instead challenge them to a greater knowledge of God's Word and a holy life.

--Saint Boniface Evangelical Lutheran Church (Niles, MI), Pr. John Rutowicz

--that our director, Keely Gelso, would be upheld and strengthened in her work on behalf of our Learning Center.

--that our members would consider their abundant spiritual blessings from God through Trinity Lutheran Church as they consider their offering for next year.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— Lord God, heavenly Father, You have appointed the governing authorities for the reward of those who do good and the punishment of evildoers. Lead us to honor those in authority, including our president, Joe Biden, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and our mayor, Steve Frattini.

Bless our nation, its president, and all who serve in government, that we who rejoice in Your truth may be permitted, without restriction, to declare Your glory and serve You.

--For the soldiers, marines, airmen, sailors, and special forces—especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt—who put their lives in harm's way in order to defend our freedoms we ask that God would protect them from all danger and lift their spirits during their times of trial.

Guide and protect our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, from all harm and danger.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

1 Je - sus, the ver - y tho't of Thee With sweet-ness fills the breast;
2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame, Nor can the mem-'ry find
3 O Hope of ev - 'ry con - trite heart, O Joy of all the meek!

But sweet-er far Thy face to see And in Thy pres-ence rest.
A sweet-er sound than Thy blest name, O Sav - ior of man-kind!
To those who fall, how kind Thou art, How good to those who seek! A-men.

4 But what to those who find? Ah! this 5 Jesus, our only Joy be Thou
Nor tongue nor pen can show; As Thou our Prize wilt be!
The love of Jesus, what it is, Jesus, be Thou our Glory now
None but His loved ones know. And through eternity.

Testament Deutzsch.

The table of contents from Martin Luther's (1483-1546) September Testament published in September of 1522. The New Testament in German was Luther's crowning achievement which opened the Bible to laypeople. The table of contents had four books of the Bible at the bottom (Hebrews, James, Jude and Revelation) without numbers showing Luther's preference for the other books.
