#65 God's People Will Never Have Earthly Peace in this World

And even if I were to live another hundred years and should succeed by the grace of God not only in allaying the past and present storms and rabbles but also all future ones, I realize that this would still not procure peace for our descendants so long as the devil lives and rules. Therefore I am also praying for a gracious hour of death; I care no more for this life. I exhort you, our posterity, to pray and to pursue the word of God with diligence. Keep God's poor candle burning. Be warned and be on the alert, watching lest at any hour the devil try to break a pane or window or fling open a door or tear the roof off in order to extinguish the light; for he will not die before the Last Day. You and I have to die, but after our death he still remains the same as he always has been, unable to desist from his raging. (Luther's Works, v.47, p.117)

In Deep Distress 2.

O LORD, Who didst of old time suffer in our body, when wilt Thou look upon us? When wilt Thou turn the eyes of Thy clemency to our groans and distress? Delay not, tarry not, now draw nigh; now be Thou turned to us; now regard us, that our prayer, which now, by reason of our secret sins, returns back again into our own bosom, may, by the abundance of Thy mercy, enter into Thy presence, and be accepted by Thee. Amen. Through Thy mercy, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.58).

Almighty God, we implore You, show Your mercy unto Your humble servants, that we who put no trust in our own merits may not be dealt with after the severity of Your judgment, but according to Your mercy; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. —that our heavenly Father has made us His true children and brought us forgiveness of sins, turning aside His wrath through the work of His Son, Jesus Christ our Savior, so that now we live in His mercy and favor. Though we live in a sinful world and daily see around us signs of the coming end of all things, our hope is in His salvation by which we shall be spared of judgment and endure to the end.

The Church and her servants.—that He would give His church the Holy Spirit so that the pure teaching of His Word would create faith in Christ and His children would lead godly lives.

--use your pastors in Christ—including our bishop, James Heiser and our Pastors Gary K Harroun and Michael D. Henson—so that by their preaching and teaching your will would be done to break and hinder every evil plan of the devil, the world and our sinful nature, as well as false christs and prophets.

-- Peace Lutheran Mission (Ironwood, MI), Pr. Jeffrey Ahonen

----that our director, Keely Gelso, would be upheld and strengthened in her work on behalf of our Learning Center.

--give us cheerful hearts to consider our abundant blessings and resolve to bring you a fitting portion of our income and time over the next year.

--For the perception to see that the wars and rumors of wars, famines, earthquakes, natural disasters, tribulation, lawlessness, and divisions in the Church are all signs that the Son of Man will soon return in glory to judge the world, that, using these signs of His return, the Lord would bring His Church to repentance and strengthen her to proclaim the Gospel to the ends of the world for the salvation of many. (for 3rd Last Sunday)

The nations of the world and their rulers.— Lord God, heavenly Father, You have appointed the governing authorities for the reward of those who do good and the punishment of evildoers. Lead us to honor those in authority, including our president, Joe Biden, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and our mayor, Steve Frattini. Bless our nation, its president, and all who serve in government, that we who rejoice in Your truth may be permitted, without restriction, to declare Your glory and serve You. Give all public servants a love of that which is true and noble, that justice may be done, peace promoted, wealth protected, and mercy shown. Protect body and possessions, protect our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, from harm and danger. Provide healing for those who have become injured in the line of duty. And finally give courage and loyalty to those who protect our land, that they may curb violence and maintain law and order. Guide and protect our military personnel, especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, from all harm and danger and in Your good time bring them back home to us.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

Fifth Trumpet

from Das Neue Testament Deutzsch.
The image is from Martin Luther's (1483-1546) September Testament. The image is based on Revelation chapter 9. The angel blows a trumpet causing a star to fall from heaving, opening the pit and allowing locusts with crowns to prey upon the earth. Woodcut designed by Lucas Cranach, the Elder (1472-1553), a close friend of Martin Luther.
