

Welcome to Trinity

#62 What If They Will Not Allow the Gospel? Flee

But these examples are not enough for us, for here we are not concerned with what the heathen or the Jews did, but what is the right and the just thing to do, not only before God in the Spirit, but also in the divine external ordinance of temporal government. Suppose that a people would rise up today or tomorrow and depose their lord or kill him. That certainly could happen if God decrees that it should, and the lords must expect it. But that does not mean that it is right and just for the people to do it. I have never known of a case in which this was a just action, and even now I cannot imagine any. The peasants who rebelled claimed that the lords would not allow the gospel to be preached and that they robbed the poor people and, therefore, the lords had to be overthrown. I answered this by saying that although the lords did wrong in this, it would not therefore be just or right to do wrong in return, that is, to be disobedient and destroy God's ordinance, which is not ours to do. On the contrary, we ought to suffer wrong, and if a prince or lord will not tolerate the gospel, then we ought to go into another realm where the gospel is preached, as Christ says in Matthew 10 [:23], "When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next." (Luther's Works, v.46, p.104-105)

In Deep Distress.

O LORD, let Thy mercy speedily go before us, for there is neither comforting hope, nor trust in merit, nor helpful assistance to support us; but the guilt and trouble of our life, the consciousness of our sins, or the vengeance on our offences rebukes us in our sins for Thy name's sake, that when Thou hast done both for Thyself, and hast looked on Thy people with Thy wonted loving kindness, we may give Thee glory for Thy deliverance; through Thy mercy; who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. (Oremus, 1925, p.58).

Prayer for the Church

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we, your unworthy servants, give you most humble and hearty thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all mankind. We praise you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for your inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. We implore you to give us that due sense of all your mercies that our hearts may ever be deeply thankful and that we may show forth your praise with both our lips and our lives-Let us walk before you in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life and enjoy the testimony of a good conscience and the hope of your favor, be sustained and comforted in every time of trouble, and finally be received into your everlasting kingdom; {special requests} through your infinite mercy in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Communion Psalm: Ant. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God; Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God; Blessed are those who suffer persecution for the sake of justice, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (Mt. 5:8-10). Psalm 126.

Remembrance of the Faithful Departed

Pastor: I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this:

People: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."
"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them." (Rev. 14:13)

Pastor: Let us remember with thanksgiving those who have gone before us with the sign of faith, for they were created by God to offer Him praise and thanksgiving forever, and He gave them new life through His Son in Holy Baptism, and nourished them in the company of His people at His Holy Table, and in His mercy has summoned them to His nearer presence so that they may continue in joyful service of Him forever. Amen.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.
