#46 If Success Follows, Commit to God

Thus he says here also Eccl. 2:14. The wise man has his eyes in his head. That is, they are not only prudent administrators of affairs, but circumspect, diligent, and watchful. They do indeed see how affairs are to be administered, but they cannot bring about the outcome. The fool, on the other hand, does not have his eyes in his forehead, because he is carried along by temerity and boldness. Eventually the affairs of both are decided by luck and fortune, that is, by God's determination of the outcome, and not by either our counsel or our temerity. Both of them sometimes fall and sometimes prosper. But God does not want this to become the basis of rules. For the creatures are not in our hand, but in God's, who gives them to us to use and who through us does what He wishes. What we add on our own, however, when we wish to determine this use by our own counsels and efforts, is in vain. Therefore he instructs us not to trust in our own wisdom and counsel but to do what He has given us to do; if it does not succeed, we should commit it to God. (Luther's Works, v.15 p.40)

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Introit

*The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom | shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I | be afraid?

*When the wicked came a- | gainst me,
my enemies and foes, they stum- | bled and fell.

Though an army may encamp a- | gainst me,*
my heart | shall not fear;
though war should rise a- | gainst me,*
in this I will be | confident.

One thing I have desired of the LORD, that | will I seek:*

that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days | of my life,

for in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pa- | vilion;*

he shall set me high up- | on a rock.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom | shall I fear?*

The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I | be afraid?

When the wicked came a- | gainst me,*
my enemies and foes, they stum- | bled and fell.

(Psalm 27:3–5; Antiphon: Psalm 27:1–2)

Collect

Grant, O Lord, we implore You, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Your governance, that Your Church may joyfully serve You in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

Genesis 50:15-21

The Death of Jacob

Gradual

Make atonement for our | sins, O Lord*

lest the nations say, “Where | is their God?”

Help us, O God of our sal- | vation,*

for the glory of Your name, de- | liver us. (Ps 79:9–10)

Romans 8:18-23

Followed by Alleluia Verse, p.140

Present Sufferings

St. Luke 6:36-42

Followed by The Nicene Creed, p. 141

Be Merciful

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that our merciful heavenly Father does not rightly condemn us, but forgives us our sins through His Son Jesus Christ.

The Church and her servants.— that all pastors in Christ, including our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael Henson and Gary Harroun would not be blind guides, but be ever studying God’s Word that they might be fully-trained to lead us in the way of truth.

--that those who have been taught the truth of God’s Word would not judge others while they themselves continue to sin, but would instead be merciful to their brother just as they have received mercy.

--For our Director, Keely Gelso; For our teachers, assistants and support staff; for those who volunteer in taking care of the children and maintaining the facility; for those who give financial and prayer support; for those on the Board of Education.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— For our president, Joe Biden and the congress of the United States, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and state legislators, our mayor, Steve Frattini and city officials, and all our judges, that they would act wisely and responsibly, and that we would carry out our duties as citizens.

--For the soldiers, marines, airmen, sailors, and special forces— especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, as well as our police officers Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne—who put their lives in harm’s way in order to defend our freedoms we ask that God would protect them from all danger and lift their spirits during their times of trial.

--O Lord God Almighty, who does behold all the nations of the earth from Your heavenly throne, look down with pity upon those nations who are now at war. Hold Your hand over women and children. Check the hatred and cruelty of mankind. Direct the counsels of neighbor nations to overtures of peace. Give peace in our time, that we and all Your children may serve You with a quiet mind.

Communion Psalm: Ant. I will speak of all thy marvelous works, O Lord: I will be glad and rejoice in thee: yea, my songs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Highest. (Psalm 9:1-2). Psalm 9.

For Grace to Use One's Gifts.

O LORD God of righteousness, Who art ever merciful and lendest: So bestow on Thy servants the talents which Thou seest to be expedient for them, that they may return them with a good increase to Thy glory and honor; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.42-44).
