

Welcome
to Trinity

#55 Contentment Without Anxiety is From the Hand of God

Therefore he says This also, I saw, is from the hand of God. This is a noteworthy statement and an outstanding doctrine, but he stresses it less than he did the earlier one. This is because an affirmative statement affects us less than a negative one, as, for example, even the affirmative statement “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt” (Ex. 20:2) is quickly said but does not affect us, while there is greater force in the negative statement “You shall have no other gods before Me” (Ex. 20:3). Thus here also he treats the affirmative statement “It is good for a man to eat, etc.” in few words; but he uses many words in the negative statement, to prove and show us our foolishness, namely, that we accomplish nothing by all our counsels and our toil, distracted as we are by anxiety so that we do not use the things that are present. To crude people it is necessary that he speak in crude and lengthy terms and with examples. To wise people he could have said it all in one word: “The Lord Himself is your God.”

Eccl. 2:25. For who has eaten or enjoyed himself more than I?

He is citing his own experience. “For if I who achieved many things and had an abundance of good things still have not attained what I wanted, how much less will others do so if God does not grant happiness?” (Luther’s Works, v.15 p.47)

For Purity of Heart.

O GOD, who lovest all that is sincere and pure, and dwellest of Thy bountiful goodness in the chaste souls of the faithful: Purify us from all taint of sin, that we may always have our heart ready for Thee, and sing and play worthily unto Thee in Thy glory; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.42).

THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Introit

Have respect to Your cove- / nant,
O Lord;*

oh, do not let the oppressed re- / turn ashamed!

Arise, O God, plead / Your own cause;*

do not forget the voice of Your / enemies.

O God, why have You cast us off for- / ever?*

Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your / pasture?

Remember Your congre- / gation,*

which You have pur- / chased of old,

The tribe of Your inheritance, which You / have redeemed—*

this Mount Zion where / You have dwelt.

Do not forget the life of Your poor for- / ever.*

Let the poor and needy / praise Your name.

Glory be to the Father and / to the Son*

and to the Holy / Spirit

as it was in the be / ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. / Amen.

Have respect to Your cove- / nant, O Lord;*

oh, do not let the oppressed re- / turn ashamed!

Arise, O God, plead / Your own cause;*

do not forget the voice of Your / enemies.

(Antiphon, Ps 74:20-23; Psalm 74:1-2, 19, 21)

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity, and as we do obtain that which You promise, make our Lord, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Come, let us return to the LORD

Gradual

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving.—that Jesus Christ—who truly loved the Father with all his heart, soul, strength and mind--loved us so much that he showed us mercy and gave us the gift of eternal life.

The Church and her servants.—that the church who has been given the full revelation of Jesus Christ, might see that she is blessed through the hearing of the Word of Christ's forgiveness, and not by works of the law. That out of love for Christ's redemption, each of Trinity's members would be given the desire to be diligent in the performance of good works of love for their spouse, child, parent, friend, co-worker, employer, etc.

-- that our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael D. Henson and Gary K. Harroun would be given strength to provide assistance and Scriptural guidance to pastors and congregations.
--Bless our director, Keely Gelso, as well as the teachers and staff of our Learning Center.

The nations of the world and their rulers.—O God, because You have given us this good land in which to dwell, we pray for our president, Joe Biden, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, our mayor, Steve Frattoni, and other who are elected and appointed to serve us in the various branches of our government. Grant that they would make, judge, and enforce our laws with integrity and clarity of mind, and that they would recognize their responsibility to You, the One from whom all authority stems. We remember in particular the courts of our land, that all judges would interpret our Constitution and laws with impartiality and thus contribute to peace and stability throughout the nation.

--Protect those who serve in the armed forces, especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, that they may diligently carry out their duties and be protected from all harm and danger.

Particular local needs.—

Shut-ins.- Carolyn Westerman; Elderly.- Violet Kemp, Tom Smith

Communion Psalm: Ant. The earth, O Lord, is filled with the fruit of your works: that you may bring food out of the earth, and wine that makes glad the heart of man: and oil to make him a cheerful countenance, and bread to strengthen man's heart. (Psalm 104:13-15).

Psalm 104:1-2, 24, 30-31.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.
