

Welcome to Trinity

#60 Joy has its Appointed Time

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted.

These are works of human life, but they are not in our hands any more than life itself is. In the spring there is planting, in the autumn there is plucking up. All of this is as God gives and ordains it, and it cannot be done otherwise by us.

3. A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4. a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5. a time to cast away and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; 6. a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; 7. a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; 8. a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

This catalog requires experience, so that it may be applied to the entire course of life. For this is what happens: one man plants, and another plucks; or one man acquires, and another tears down. In short, for each of the works of human life there is a defined time, outside of which, regardless of what you do, you will accomplish nothing and work in vain. There is a time to weep, there is a time to laugh. It often happens that when we want to be very joyous, a sudden disturbance arises. Therefore joy has its appointed time. Experience proves all of this, namely, that by our own counsels we can achieve nothing, but whatever is to be done is presented to us at its appointed time. Therefore let us not torment ourselves about future things, but enjoy present things. (Luther’s Works, v.15 p.51-52)

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Introit

Give peace, O Lord, to those who / wait for You.*

and let Your prophets be proven / faithful.

Hear the prayer of Your / servants,*

according to the blessing of Aaron upon Your / people.

I was glad when they / said to me,*

“Let us go into the house / of the Lord.”

Pray for the peace of Je- / rusalem:*

“May they prosper who / love you.

For the sake of my brethren and com- / panions,*

I will now say, “Peace be with- / in you.”

Because of the house of the / Lord our God*

I will / seek your good.

Glory be to the Father and / to the Son*

and to the Holy / Spirit

as it was in the be / ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. / Amen.

Give peace, O Lord, to those who / wait for You:*

and let Your prophets be proven / faithful.

Hear the prayer of Your / servants,*

according to the blessing of Aaron upon Your / people.

(Antiphon, Ecclesiasticus 36:16-17a; Psalm 122:1, 6, 8-9)

Collect

O God, forasmuch as without You we are not able to please You, mercifully grant that Your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN

Deuteronomy 10:12-21

What does God require of you?

Gradual

“Let us go into the house / of the Lord.”

“Peace be with- / in your walls,* prosperity within your / palaces.”

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

Followed by Alleluia Verse, p.140

The great commandment

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that Jesus Christ completely fulfilled the law of love by his obedience to the heavenly Father and by his suffering and death for our salvation.

The Church and her servants.—That the church might not only speak clearly about the un-keepable demands of the law, but also tell the Good News about the perfect love of the God-man Jesus Christ.

--Grant Your Holy Spirit to all pastors, our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael D. Henson and Gary K. Harroun, that they may be wise stewards of the incomparable treasures of Word & Sacrament properly dividing law and Gospel.

--By Your Spirit increase in us a genuine love of Your Word and a true understanding of the person and work of Christ our Savior.

--That our Early Childhood Learning Center, and our director, Keely Gelso would teach the children about the son of David, Jesus Christ, our God.

The nations of the world and their rulers.-O Ruler of all, give governments around the world, and especially the government of the United States, guidance, integrity, and a willingness to act out of love and care for the people they serve. Protect our president, Joe Biden, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, our mayor, Steve Frattini, and all our leaders from mere self-interest that they may faithfully serve the common good.

--Protect those who serve in the armed forces, especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, that they may diligently carry out their duties and be protected from all harm and danger.

Communion Psalm: Ant. O promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it: all of you that are round about bring presents to him that ought to be feared: he shall refrain the spirit of princes, and is wonderful; yes, even among the kings of the earth. (Psalm 76:11-12).
Psalm 76:1-5, 8-9.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

Against a Froward Heart.
WE sing of mercy and judgment unto Thee, O Lord, our Savior and Judge, help us with the one, warn us with the other; on that side is the light of pity, on this the rule of inquiry; grant us Thy humble servants, O Lord, that a froward heart may not cleave to us, and that evil things before our eyes may not allure us; but that walking in the simplicity of innocence, Thou mayest lead us on in Thy pity and love, and absolve us as a truthful Judge; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.48-49).
