#61 The Gift of God at its Appointed Time is Pleasant

9. What gain has the worker from his toil?

That is, unless the appointed time, or καιρός, is here, he achieves nothing. The worker has nothing else except his own appointed time. If this does not come, he can achieve nothing. But if the appointed time is right, then he is right, too.

10. I have seen the travail, which God has given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

This is a clarification of everything that has preceded it. "In all those labors," he says, "I have seen that men cannot achieve anything by themselves unless their appointed time is here." But those who want to anticipate their appointed time prematurely have travail, care, and anxieties; this is intended to make them learn from their experience and to refrain from care about future things, but to use the things that are present.

11. He has made everything beautiful in its time.

Now this is the second part. Those who do not expect their appointed time are afflicted, while those who do expect it are delighted. For everything that God makes or that happens through the gift of God in its appointed time is pleasant. That is to say, when the heart is empty of cares and yet something happens to it that is pleasant or some interesting sight comes along, this is very delightful. Therefore such people have pleasure where others have affliction, because they do things at the time which has been appointed by God. (Luther's Works, v.15 p.52-53)

All Saints' Day

At 7:00 PM, on November 1st we will remember by name those who have departed this life as members of Trinity Lutheran Church and other friends and relatives who have received a Christian burial. We will give thanks to God for their witness and ask the Lord to unite us with them before His presence in heaven. If you wish to have a particular departed Christian's name remembered, submit that name to Pastor Henson, prior to the service on November 1.

Authority to Forgive Sins

Followed by The Nicene Creed, p. 141

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that Jesus Christ, having the authority to heal both body and soul, has given the authority to forgive sins to his church on earth.

The Church and her servants.— Give your church the Holy Spirit so that her members pray for the salvation of their neighbors and bring them to Jesus as the men brought the paralytic to Jesus.

--give zeal to all pastors, to our bishop, James Heiser, and to our pastors, Michael D. Henson and Gary K. Harroun, that they would boldly speak to repentant sinners the comforting words, "Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven."

--That our Early Childhood Learning Center, and our director, Keely Gelso would teach the children about the son of David, Jesus Christ, our God.

--that our members would consider their abundant spiritual blessings from God through Trinity Lutheran Church as they consider their offering for next year.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— Lord God, heavenly Father, You have appointed the governing authorities for the reward of those who do good and the punishment of evildoers. Lead us to honor those in authority, including our president, Joe Biden, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, and our mayor, Steve Frattini.

--Protect and guide all who make, administer and judge our laws, including chief Justice of United States, John Roberts Jr., that they intercede for the weakest and most vulnerable, especially the unborn and the infirm, and bring wrongdoers to justice.

--Guide and protect our military personnel, especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, from all harm and danger and in Your good time bring them back home to us.

Particular local needs.—

Shut-ins.- Carolyn Westerman; Elderly.- Violet Kemp, Tom Smith
Various Needs.- Kevin Krolak (nephew of Patti Baker), Stan (Jane's Brothers), Jack Plock (brother of Cecil Plock), Levi Gonzalez (nephew of Patti Baker), Jennifer (brain tumor, Cecil's daughter), Victor and Marsha Turner and Anita Prochaska(epidural injection for spine), Paul Horman

Students.- Sarah Miller (University of Kentucky, Lexington), Sadie Henson (Concordia University, Nebraska), Jonathan Henson (Southern Illinois University), Kara Martin (University of Southern Indiana), Alexis Darnstaedt (University of Missouri, Columbia), Ashleigh Byrne(Colorado State University-Global), Cameron Offnet(Southern Illinois University), and Benjamin Henson & Jacob Henson (St. Ignatius Seminary)

O Lord, grant genuine repentance and faith to those who approach Your throne of grace to receive the body and blood of Christ, that they may do so in the confidence that You are there to bless them with Your wondrous gifts of forgiveness and life.

Communion Psalm: Ant. Bring offerings and come into his courts; O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. (Psalm 96:8).
Psalm 96:1-6.

For Obedience.

MAKE us of quick and tender conscience, O Lord; that understanding, we may obey every word of Thine, and discerning, may follow every suggestion of Thine indwelling Spirit; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.49).

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.
