

Welcome to Trinity

#62 The Christian is happy, as he is content with the things that are Present

Also he has given the world into man’s heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end.

This is a confirmation of the preceding. “Although God has given the world into the hearts of men,” he says, “they still cannot govern it by their own counsels.” “To give into the heart” or “to speak into the heart” is a Hebraism for giving or speaking in a sweet and flattering way. He wants to say: God not only gives the world into the hand of men, so that they can use the things that are present, but also into their heart, so that they can use them joyfully and with pleasure and so that they have fun and delight from it. Nevertheless, man cannot know what the beginning or the end of the work is, when or for how long he is to have these things. Therefore man should be content that he has the world for his use. Paul speaks in similar terms in Acts 14:17: “Yet He did not leave Himself without witness, for He did good and gave from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, satisfying their hearts with food and gladness.” And elsewhere (1 Tim. 6:17): “Who richly furnishes everything.” This happiness the Christian has, and everyone else would have it also if he could be content with the things that are present. St. Jerome says correctly in his preface to the Bible: “The believer has a world of riches, but the unbeliever does not have a penny; as the proverb says, ‘the miser lacks not only what he does not have but also what he does have.’” (Luther’s Works, v.15 p.53)

The Church and her servants.—Give to your church the comfort of your divine election so that we use the greatest diligence to live according to God's will.

--That our Early Childhood Learning Center, and our director, Keely Gelso would teach the children about Jesus Christ.

--Faith Lutheran Church (Tualatin, OR) Pr. Daniel Mensing

All Saints' Day

At 7:00 PM, on Tuesday November 1st we will remember by name those who have departed this life as members of Trinity Lutheran Church and other friends and relatives who have received a Christian burial. We will give thanks to God for their witness and ask the Lord to unite us with them before His presence in heaven. If you wish to have a particular departed Christian's name remembered, submit that name to Pastor Henson, prior to the service on November 1.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

 Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern

Wie schön leuchtet
 Philipp Nicolai, 1599

1 How love-ly shines the morning star! In twi-light sky it gleams a-far;
 2 Then haste, my soul, thy song to raise, De-lay thou not thy Lord to praise,
 3 Tho' e-vil spir-its thro' the night With hellish craft and watchful spite
 4 Pour down Thy grace in cheering streams And warm my heart with mercy's beams

The reign of night is end-ed. Cre-a-tion stirs to hail the light
 Bow down in ad-o-ra-tion. For glo-ry, Lord, to Thee be-longs,
 Came round me with-out num-ber, Yet Thou, O Je-sus, with Thy pow'r
 From heav'n, Thy throne of beauty; Thy Spir-it ev-er lead and guide

Whose glo-ries now with radiance bright Stream forth in beau-ty splen-did.
 Thy praise re-sounds in grate-ful songs, Thou Lord of all cre-a-tion.
 Wast near me in that threat'ning hour, Didst guard me in my slum-ber.
 That in my call-ing I a-bide And find my joy in du-ty.

Both far And near All things liv-ing Thanks are giv-ing,
 Let all Re-call Hymns of glad-ness With-out sad-ness,
 Praise be To Thee, My Con-tend-er And De-fend-er,
 Send light And might That each mea-sure, Plan and plea-sure,

Praise out-pour-ing, Earth and sky the Lord a-dor-ing.
 For Thy fa-vor And Thy mer-cy nev-er wa-ver.
 I'll a-dore Thee While on earth I walk be-fore Thee.
 Heav'n-ward tending, E'er in Thee may find its end-ing. A-men.

5 Keep grief, if this may be, away;
 If not, Thy will be done, I pray,
 My choice to Thine resigning.
 Then, O my heart, cast care aside,
 God through the cross His own hath tried;
 Bear loss without repining.
 Hope still Through ill;
 To God cleaving, Grace receiving,
 We shall wonder
 At God's goodness here and yonder.
