#63 Do Not Prescribe to God the Time or the Method of using the World's Things

Yet man does not find out or discover what God has done, etc. That is: Man cannot know, even if he torments himself, when God wants to do him good, when He wants to start or to stop, just as no one, regardless of how he works at it, can investigate or identify the hour when someone is to be born, to live, or to die. Therefore one should say: "Lord, it is up to Thee to give future things; meanwhile I shall enjoy the life that is present and that has already been given by Thee." Thus also the other activities of life which he has just cataloged lie outside the power of man. For if this were placed in the hands of men, many would always be waging war, while others would always be playing or building; for there are many who labor at this. The whole world is ours. Only let us not prescribe to God the time or the method of using it. "I refuse to be measured by your counsels," says God; "otherwise everything will belong to you, including Me." (Luther's Works, v.15 p.54)

For Control of One's Tongue.
 O CHRIST, Son of the living God, Who for our sakes wast made the Bread of the universe: Grant that we may never be led away by the temptation of our enemy, but may follow Thee in the true government of our tongue; through the Same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. (Oremus, 1925, p.49-50).

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving.—that our heavenly Father has made us His true children and brought us forgiveness of sins, turning aside His wrath through the work of His Son, Jesus Christ our Savior, so that now we live in His mercy and favor. Though we live in a sinful world and daily see around us signs of the coming end of all things, our hope is in His salvation by which we shall be spared of judgment and endure to the end.

The Church and her servants.—that He would give His church the Holy Spirit so that the pure teaching of His Word would create faith in Christ and His children would lead godly lives.

--use your pastors in Christ—including our bishop, James Heiser and our Pastors Gary K Harroun and Michael D. Henson—so that by their preaching and teaching your will would be done to break and hinder every evil plan of the devil, the world and our sinful nature, as well as false christs and prophets.

-- St. Peter and Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church UAC, (Simpson, SC), Pr. Jerry Dulas

----that our director, Keely Gelso, would be upheld and strengthened in her work on behalf of our Learning Center.

--give us cheerful hearts to consider our abundant blessings and resolve to bring you a fitting portion of our income and time over the next year.

--For the perception to see that the wars and rumors of wars, famines, earthquakes, natural disasters, tribulation, lawlessness, and divisions in the Church are all signs that the Son of Man will soon return in glory to judge the world, that, using these signs of His return, the Lord would bring His Church to repentance and strengthen her to proclaim the Gospel to the ends of the world for the salvation of many.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— Bless our nation, its president, and all who serve in government, that we who rejoice in Your truth may be permitted, without restriction, to declare Your glory and serve You. Protect body and possessions, protect our police officers from harm and danger. Provide healing for those who have become injured in the line of duty. And finally give courage and loyalty to those who protect our land, that they may curb violence and maintain law and order. Guide and protect our military personnel, especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, from all harm and danger and in Your good time bring them back home to us.

--Having given us a constitutional republic and provided the government as your servant, lead our citizens to exercise their civic duties with wisdom, electing candidates who will lead our country in ways that please You.

The Lord's Supper

Trinity Lutheran Church observes the Scriptural practice (Eph 4:3, 2 John 1:10-11) of communing only with those for whom their public profession of faith (congregational membership) is in agreement with God's Word and the correct exposition of Holy Scripture as found in the Book of Concord (1580). All who desire to receive Christ's Body and Blood for the forgiveness of sins are asked to speak with Pastor Henson before coming forward to commune.

Trinity Lutheran Church is served by pastors who are members of the Evangelical Lutheran Diocese of North America (Eldona.org).

--Those who are members of Eldona-affiliated congregations are welcome to commune after announcing to Pastor Henson.

--Those who are not members of Eldona-affiliated congregations will need to set up an appointment with Pastor Henson to discuss their public church membership.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Trinity Lutheran Church in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until He comes.

Those who are not yet invited to receive the Sacrament are encouraged to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when our divisions will have ceased.
