

VIGIL OF EASTER
Celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord and our Baptism

(There is no prelude. The congregation gathers outside the church nave. All are given candles, later to be lighted from the paschal candle.)

THE SERVICE OF LIGHT

(In the semi-darkness a fire is kindled.)

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the [+] Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: AMEN

Pastor: Beloved in the Lord, on this most holy night our Lord Jesus passed over from death to life. This is the Passover of the Lord in which, by hearing his Word and celebrating his sacraments, we share in his victory over death.

Pastor: Let us pray.

O God, you are like a refiner's fire, and your Spirit enkindles the hearts of your faithful people with the fire of your love. Bless, we implore you, this new flame and those who keep this joyful Easter festival that, burning with desire for life with you, we may be found rightly prepared to share in the Feast of Light which has no end; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: AMEN

(The Paschal Candle is prepared for use.)

Pastor: Christ Jesus, the same yesterday, today, and forever, the beginning and the ending, the Alpha and Omega.

(The Pastor traces the cross and the Greek letters A and Ω.)

Blessing of the fire and lighting of the candle

Pastor: His are time and eternity; His are the glory and dominion, now and forever.

(The Pastor traces the year upon the candle.)

Pastor: By his wounds we have healing both now and forever. Amen

(The five wax nails are put into the candle.)

Pastor: May the light of Christ, who is risen in glory from the dead, scatter the darkness of our hearts and minds.

(The Paschal Candle is lit.)

Pastor: Let us pray

Almighty and most merciful God, pour out on us your abundant blessing that all who in true faith share the joyful celebration of the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead may be filled with your heavenly benediction. Once we were in darkness, but now we are in the Light, even Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People: AMEN

(All light their candles from the paschal candle. The procession into the nave begins. The Paschal candle leads the procession into the darkened church.)

A The light of Christ.

G Thanks be to God.

A The light of Christ.

G Thanks be to God.

A The light of Christ.

G Thanks be to God.

The Easter Proclamation is chanted.

Rejoice now, all you heavenly choirs of angels; rejoice now, all creation; sound forth, trumpet of salvation, and proclaim the triumph of our King. Rejoice too, all the earth, in the radiance of the light now poured upon you and made brilliant by the brightness of the everlasting King; know that the ancient darkness has been forever banished. Rejoice, O Church of Christ, clothed in the brightness of this light; let all the house of God ring out with rejoicing, with the praises of all God's faithful people.

*Rejoice, heavenly powers!
Sing, choirs of angels!*

P The Lord be with you.

G And with your spir - it.

P Lift up your hearts.

G We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

G It is good and right so to do.

(The Pastor, standing before the font, continues the Easter Proclamation.)

Pastor: It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places, with all our heart and mind and voice, praise you, O Lord, Holy Father, almighty everlasting God, and your only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. For He is the very Paschal Lamb who offered himself for the sin of the world, who has cleansed us by the shedding of his precious blood. This is the night when you brought our fathers, the children of Israel, out of bondage in Egypt and led them through the Red Sea on dry ground. This is the night when all who believe in Christ are delivered from bondage to sin and are restored to life and immortality. This is the night when Christ, the Life arose from the dead. The seal of the grave is broken and the morning of the new creation breaks forth out of night. Oh, how wonderful and beyond all telling is your mercy toward us, O God, that to redeem a slave you gave your Son. How holy is this night when all wickedness is put to flight and sin is washed away. How holy is this night when innocence is restored to the fallen and joy is given to those downcast. How blessed is this night when man is reconciled to God in Christ. Holy Father, accept now the evening sacrifices of our thanksgiving and praise. Let Christ, the true light and morning star, shine in our hearts, he who gives light to all creation, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

(The people extinguish their candles and may be seated.)

SERVICE OF HOLY BAPTISM

The assisting minister carries the paschal candle to the font and places it in its stand.

PRESENTATION

Candidates for baptism and their sponsors gather at the font.

A sponsor for each candidate presents the candidate with these or similar words:

I present [name] to receive the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

The minister addresses those candidates who are able to answer for themselves:

P. [Name], do you desire to be baptized?

R. I do.

The minister addresses the parents of infants and young children:

P. Who brings this child to be baptized?

R. We do.

ADDRESS TO CANDIDATES AND SPONSORS

When adults or older children are baptized, the minister address the sponsors:

P. In Christian love you have presented [this person/these people] for Holy Baptism.

You should, therefore, faithfully care for them and help them in every way as God gives you opportunity, that they may bear witness to the faith we profess, and that, living in the covenant of their Baptism and in communion with the Church, they may lead godly lives until the day of Jesus Christ.

P. Do you promise to fulfill these obligations?

The parents and sponsors respond:

R. I do.

If there are also infants or young children to be baptized, the minister addresses the sponsors and parents:

P. In Christian love you have presented [this child/these children] for Holy Baptism.

You should, therefore, faithfully bring them to the services of God's house, and teach them the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments. As they grow in years, you should place in their hands the Holy Scriptures and provide for their instruction in the Christian faith, that, living in the covenant of their Baptism and in communion with the Church, they may lead godly lives until the day of Jesus Christ.

Stand

THANKSGIVING

The minister begins the thanksgiving.

P. The Lord be with you.

C. And with your spirit.

P. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C. It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P. Holy God, mighty Lord, gracious Father:

We give you thanks, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and you created heaven and earth.

By the gift of water you nourish and sustain us and all living things.

By the waters of the flood you condemned the wicked and saved those whom you had chosen, Noah and his family.

You led Israel by the pillar of cloud and fire through the sea, out of slavery into the freedom of the Promised Land.

In the waters of the Jordan your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Spirit. By the baptism of his own death and resurrection your beloved Son has set us free from the bondage to sin and death, and has opened the way to the joy and freedom of everlasting life.

He made water a sign of the kingdom and of cleansing and rebirth.

In obedience to his command, we make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Pour out your Holy Spirit, so that those who are [here] baptized may be given new life.

Wash away the sin of all those who are cleansed by this water and bring them forth as inheritors of your glorious kingdom.

To you be given praise and honor and worship through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

C. Amen

RENUNCIATION AND PROFESSION

The minister addresses the baptismal group, those baptized who wish to profess their faith, and the congregation.

P. I ask you to profess your faith in Christ Jesus, reject sin, and confess the faith of the Church, the faith in which we baptize.

P. Do you renounce the devil and all his works and all his ways?

C. I do.

P. Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty?

C. Yes, I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

P. Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son?

C. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence he will come to judge the living and the dead.

P. Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

C. I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Christ, we give you thanks for freeing your sons and daughters from the power of sin and for raising them up to a new life through this holy sacrament.

C. Amen

Born again in Christ by baptism you have become members of Christ and of his priestly people

SIGNING WITH THE CROSS

*The minister makes the sign of the cross on the forehead of each of the baptized.
Oil prepared for this purpose may be used.*

As the sign of the cross is made, the minister says:

P. [Name], child of God, you have been sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the + cross of Christ forever.

R. Amen

CLOTHING WITH A BAPTISMAL GARMENT

A white garment may be given to each of the newly baptized.

Receive this white garment to show that Christ has taken away and borne your sin and put upon you his perfect righteousness. So shall you in faith ever stand before him.

GIVING OF THE LIGHT

A lighted candle may be given to each of the baptized (to the sponsor of a young child).

Receive this burning light. Live always by the light of Christ, and be ever watchful for his coming that you may meet him with joy and enter with him to the marriage feast of the Lamb in his kingdom, which shall have no end.

LAYING ON OF HANDS (Confirmation)

Those who have been baptized and taught the faith, now confess that faith and are welcomed into Christian fellowship to share in all the gifts our Lord has for His Church.

A sponsor gives a lighted candle to the confirmand and says to the pastor:

I present [names] to acknowledge the gifts which God gave [them/her/him] in holy Baptism.

P. Having just renounced the devil and confessed the Christian faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed, I ask you: Do you intend to continue steadfast in this confession and Church and to suffer all, even death, rather than fall away from it?

R. I do so intend with the help of God.

P. Do you hold all the prophetic and apostolic Scriptures to be the inspired Word of God and confess the doctrine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, drawn from them, as you have learned to know it from the Small Catechism, to be faithful and true?

R. I do.

P. Do you desire to be a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and of this congregation?

R. I do.

P. Do you intend faithfully to conform all your life to the divine Word, to be faithful in the use of God's Word and sacraments, which are his means of grace and in faith, word, and action to remain true to God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, even to death?

R. I do so intend by the grace of God.

As the sign of the cross is made, the minister says:

P. [name], child of God, in your baptism you have been sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the ✠ cross of Christ forever.

R. Amen.

The minister lays both hands on each of the confirmands.

P. [name], God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, give you his Holy Spirit the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge, of grace and prayer, of power and strength, of sanctification and the fear of God.

P. Upon this your profession and promise I invite and welcome you, as members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and of this congregation, to share with us in all the gifts our Lord has for his Church and to live them out continually in his worship and service.

A confirmation verse is spoken by the minister.

PRAYERS

The minister, the baptized and the confirmed go before the altar.

P. The Lord be with you.

C. And also with you.

P. Let us pray:

Almighty and merciful God and Father, we thank and praise you that you graciously preserve and enlarge your family and have granted [names] the new birth in Holy Baptism and made [him/her] a member of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, and an heir of your heavenly kingdom. Keep [him/her] in [his/her] baptismal grace that according to your good pleasure [he/she] may faithfully grow to lead a godly life to the praise and honor of your holy name and finally with all your saints obtain the promises inheritance in heaven; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C. Amen

P. Lord God, we thank you for enabling [names] to both with the heart believe and with the mouth to confess Your saving name. Grant that, bringing forth the fruits of faith, they may continue steadfast and victorious to the day what all who have fought the good fight of faith shall receive the crown of righteousness; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C. Amen

A SHORT BREAK.

At this point the Service of Holy Communion will be prepared by the pastor and his assistants. The newly baptized join the congregation. As the organ plays, any signs of the Holy Week observances are removed. Those who need a restroom break(downstairs), or simply wish to stand and stretch will have about 5 to 10 minutes, before the litany begins. There is also water available in the narthex.

Epistle

Pastor: The Epistle for the Resurrection of our Lord is from the third chapter of Colossians.

¹If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. ²Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. ³For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory.

Pastor: Here ends the Epistle.

Sequence Hymn - Hymn #124 Christ is Arisen

Holy Gospel

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 28th chapter.

1Now after the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. 2And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat on it. 3His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow. 4And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like dead men. 5But the angel answered and said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. 6“He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. 7“And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and indeed He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you.” 8So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

9And as they went to tell His disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, “Rejoice!” So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him. 10Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me.”
