

Welcome to Trinity

#57 You Have Need of Prayer against Transgressions and Offenses

Now, what He intends to say is this: "I have given you instructions about how you ought to live and what you ought to watch out for. In addition, it is necessary that you ask and that you have the confidence to go right on seeking and knocking without becoming lazy or lax in it. You will have need of asking, seeking, and knocking. Though doctrine and life may both have begun all right, we shall have to suffer from all sorts of transgressions and offenses that hinder us daily and keep us from progressing. We battle against these continually with all our might, but the strongest shield we have is prayer. If we do not use that, it is impossible for us to hold our own and to go on being Christians. We can plainly see now not only the sort of obstacles that oppose the Gospel every day, but also our own neglect of prayer and our attitude, as though this warning and admonition did not refer to us and we did not need prayer any more, now that the useless chattering and muttering of the rosaries and the other idolatrous prayers have stopped. All this is not a good sign, and it makes me afraid that some great misfortune which we could have prevented will overtake us. (Luther's Works, v. 21, pages 229).

For Grace to Praise God 5
ALMIGHTY and. Holy Spirit, the Comforter pure, living, true: Illuminate, govern, sanctify me, and confirm my heart and mind in the faith, and in all genuine consolation ; preserve and rule over me, that dwelling in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, I may be and remain forever in the temple of the Lord, and praise Him with a joyful spirit in union with all the heavenly Church; Who with the Father are one God, world without end. Amen (Oremus, 1925, p.37).

2 Samuel 22:21-29

<sup>21</sup> “The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has recompensed me. <sup>22</sup> For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. <sup>23</sup> For all His judgments were before me; And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them. <sup>24</sup> I was also blameless before Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity. <sup>25</sup> Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in His eyes. <sup>26</sup> With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless; <sup>27</sup> With the pure You will show Yourself pure; And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd. <sup>28</sup> You will save the humble people; But Your eyes are on the haughty, that You may bring them down. <sup>29</sup> For You are my lamp, O LORD; The LORD shall enlighten my darkness.”

1 Corinthians 15:1-10

<sup>1</sup> Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, <sup>2</sup> by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. <sup>3</sup> For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup> and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup> and that

He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. <sup>6</sup> After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup> After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup> Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. <sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup> But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

St. Luke 18:9-14

<sup>9</sup> Also He spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: <sup>10</sup> “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulter-ers, or even as this tax collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.’ <sup>13</sup> And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me a sinner!’ <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving.—that though we are like all men—sinful and unclean—you justify us through faith in Christ and apart from our thoughts, words, and deeds.

The Church and her servants.—By the preaching of your Word, give to your church the boldness to humble ourselves with repentant hearts, crying out, “Lord, have mercy” and clinging only to Jesus Christ for our righteousness so that we might faithfully perform good works.

--Give all pastors including our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael Henson and Gary Harroun, the will and ability to always preach justification by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.

--Bless our director, Keely Gelso, as well as the teachers and staff of our Learning Center so that the children know that they are saved by grace through faith, which is the gift of God.

The nations of the world and their rulers.—Endow our president, Joe Biden, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, our mayor, Steve Frattini, federal and state legislators, county commissioners, city officials and all our judges with grace to rule for the maintenance of goodness and the hindrance of evil.

--Give us compassion for couples and their families struggling through separation and divorce

--Protect those who serve in the armed forces, especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and our police officers, especially Daniel Byrne and Alex Byrne, that they may diligently carry out their duties and be protected from all harm and danger.

--bless the labors of all who work honestly with their bodies and minds. Lead employers to provide useful employment to the unemployed and just wages for all those who labor. Encourage those who work for their families and church with the knowledge that their labors are not in vain.

--Bless our universities, colleges, and schools so that knowledge may be increased among us and all good learning flourish and abound. Bless all who teach and learn, and grant that they may ever look to You with humble hearts.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar.

Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.
