

Welcome to Trinity

#28 Part 9 Good Works are the Fruits of Faith.

No work pleases God the Lord—though it be as big and grandiose as it may wish—unless the person who does it is pleasing to God, just as it is described in Gen. 4:5: God looked graciously on Abel and his offering; namely, because it was brought to God through faith and in faith, just as it is explained in Heb. 11:4. Through this faith, Abel was reconciled with God and was made acceptable to Him. However, God did not accept Cain and his offering; namely, because it was offered there without faith and the person was not reconciled with God the Lord. The works which will please God the Lord have to flow forth from the Spirit of fellowship. For those whom God the Lord has not yet received as His beloved children, their works are unable to please Him. (Schola Pietatus-Volume 1 by Johann Gerhard, Repristination Press, p. 15)

Holy Monday

In today’s text Jesus has arrived in Bethany on the Friday afternoon before Palm Sunday. He spent the Sabbath with Mary and Martha and Lazarus from 6 PM Friday until 6 PM Saturday.

Saturday evening at the main Seder meal, Jesus was the guest of honor at the house of Simon the leper. The Holy Gospel records that the crowds who were gathering in Jerusalem for the upcoming Passover, would often make the short two-mile trek to Jerusalem or perhaps they stopped in Bethany on their way to Jerusalem to see Jesus and Lazarus. Lazarus evidently was both a walking witness of Jesus’ power and a preacher of Jesus’ righteousness. It says, “on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.”

The Lord’s Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

Easter Vigil

Saturday, April 19, 7:00 to 10:00 PM

Make plans now to attend the Great Easter Vigil on the Saturday evening before Easter. Though a longer service than we are accustomed, not nearly the all-night vigils of the early Christians (Acts 20:7-12). Come and relax. Without rushing we will recall the history of God’s people and rejoice in the fulfillment of all Scripture in Christ Jesus and His resurrection.

Prayer Passiontide 1

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, Thou Author and Finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Thee didst endure the cross, despising the shame, we thank Thee for Thine unspeakable love, in that Thou hast not only procured for us rest by Thy sorrow and life by Thy death, but art pleased also to impart Thy saving health to us by the preaching of the Cross, the Word of Truth.

As Thou hast brought us to the beginning of another Lenten Season and we are about to meditate on the solemn mysteries of Thy holy Passion, we beseech Thee, by Thy Holy Spirit enlighten our understanding, and direct our will, that we may hear the story of Thy sufferings and death with our minds disengaged from all worldly distractions and bent solely upon contemplating in devout reverence and for our own salvation the wonders of Thy love, which even the angels desire to look into. Enable us to realize both the enormity and the bitterness of our sins, for which Thou wast wounded, that we may repent of them, and the unfathomable depths of Thy grace, which, where sin abounded, doth much more abound, that we may be comforted.

Oh, that Thy image, O Man of Sorrows, were deeply graven upon our hearts to make them Thine! Give us the obedience of faith, that we may now and hereafter be partakers of Thy plenteous redemption. Sprinkle us with Thy blood, cleanse our souls from sin, strengthen our hearts with the assurance of our adoption, and transform us into Thine image by the renewing of our mind. May the infinite fervor of Thy love enkindle in us steadfast faith in Thee and fervent love toward Thee and toward one another, that we may offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Thee. Have mercy upon everyone according to his need, add Thy blessing to our services at this time, be with us throughout our lives, guide us by Thy good and gracious Spirit, and grant that we may finally be acceptable in Thy sight.

Hear us, O blessed Savior, for Thine own sake.

Isaiah 50:5-10

<sup>5</sup> The Lord GOD has opened My ear; And I was not rebellious, Nor did I turn away. <sup>6</sup> I gave My back to those who struck Me, And My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard; I did not hide My face from shame and spitting. <sup>7</sup> “For the Lord GOD will help Me; Therefore I will not be disgraced; Therefore I have set My face like a flint, And I know that I will not be ashamed. <sup>8</sup> He is near who justifies Me; Who will contend with Me? Let us stand together. Who is My adversary? Let him come near Me. <sup>9</sup> Surely the Lord GOD will help Me; Who is he who will condemn Me? Indeed they will all grow old like a garment; The moth will eat them up. <sup>10</sup> “Who among you fears the LORD? Who obeys the voice of His Servant? Who walks in darkness And has no light? Let him trust in the name of the LORD And rely upon his God.

St. John 12:1-23

<sup>1</sup>Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had been dead, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup>There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary took a pound of very costly oil of spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil. <sup>4</sup>Then one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, who would betray Him, said, <sup>5</sup>“Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?” <sup>6</sup>This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it. <sup>7</sup>But Jesus said, “Let her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial. <sup>8</sup>“For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always.”

<sup>9</sup>Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus’ sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also, <sup>11</sup>because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup>took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

“Hosanna! ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!’ The King of Israel!”

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written:

<sup>16</sup>His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him. <sup>17</sup>Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness. <sup>18</sup>For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign. <sup>19</sup>The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, “You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!”

<sup>20</sup>Now there were certain Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast. <sup>21</sup>Then they came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” <sup>22</sup>Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus. <sup>23</sup>But Jesus answered them, saying, “The hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified.

PSALM 93

Introit.

Ant. PLEAD MY || cause, O Lord, with them that strive with | me | -:
fight against them that fight | a- | gainst | me.
|| Take hold of shield and | buck- | ler:
and stand up | for | mine | help.

Psalms. || Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute | me | -:
say unto my soul, I am thy | sal- | va- | tion.

(From Judica through Holy Saturday the Gloria Patri is omitted.)

Collect.

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who amid so many adversities do fail through our own infirmities, may be restored through the Passion and Intercession of Thine Only-begotten Son, Who liveth and reigneth, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever One God, world without end. Amen.
