| 1And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: 2"Make two silver   |  |
| trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you sha   | ll use                                 |
| them for calling the congregation and for directing the movement of the  |  |
| camps. 3"When they blow both of them, all the congregation shall gather  |  |
| before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. 4"But if they blow of   |  |
| one, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall gather to y   |  |
| 5"When you sound the advance, the camps that lie on the east side shall begin their journey. 6"When you sound the advance the second time, the                   |  |
| camps that lie on the south side shall begin their journey; they shall soun  |  |
| call for them to begin their journeys. 7"And when the assembly is to be  | u the                                  |
| gathered together, you shall blow, but not sound the advance. 8"The sons   | s of                                   |
| Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and these shall be to you as a  |  |
| ordinance forever throughout your generations. 9"When you go to war in   |  |
| your land against the enemy who oppresses you, then you shall sound an   |  |
| alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the Lord yo   |  |
| God, and you will be saved from your enemies. 10"Also in the day of yo   |  |
| gladness, in your appointed feasts, and at the beginning of your months,   | you                                    |
| shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices  |  |
| your peace offerings; and they shall be a memorial for you before your G   | od: I                                  |

| Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the  | Took place before the  |
| place of which the Lord said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with  | departure from Sinai   |
| us, and we will treat you well; for the Lord has promised good  | departure from Smar  |
| things to Israel." 30And he said to him, "I will not go, but I will   |  |
| depart to my own land and to my relatives." 31So Moses said,  |  |
| "Please do not leave, inasmuch as you know how we are to camp   |  |
| in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes. 32"And it shall be, if  |  |
| you go with us—indeed it shall be—that whatever good the Lord   |  |
| will do to us, the same we will do to you."   |  |
| 33So they departed from the mountain of the Lord on a   |  |
| journey of three days; and the ark of the covenant of the Lord  | Words of Moses   |
| went before them for the three days' journey, to search out a   | words of woses   |
| resting place for them. 34And the cloud of the Lord was above   |  |
| them by day when they went out from the camp.   |  |
| 35So it was, whenever the ark set out, that Moses said:   |  |
| "Rise up, O Lord!   |  |
| Let Your enemies be scattered,  |  |
| And let those who hate You flee before You."  |  |
| 36And when it rested, he said:  |  |
| "Return, O Lord,  |  |
| To the means the argon do of Israel ??  |  |
| To the many thousands of Israel."   |  |

| tabernacle, suddenly Miriam became leprous, as white as snow.    |  |
| Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper.     |  |
| 11So Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord! Please do not            |  |
| lay this sin on us, in which we have done foolishly and in which |  |
| we have sinned. 12Please do not let her be as one dead, whose    |  |

| 13So Moses cried out to the Lord, saying, "Please heal           |  |

|      | He sent them food to the full.  |                            |
| 26   | He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens;  |                            |
|      | And by His power He brought in the south wind.  |                            |
| 27   | He also rained meat on them like the dust,  |                            |
|      | Feathered fowl like the sand of the seas;   |                            |
| 28   | And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,  |                            |
|      | All around their dwellings.   |                            |
| 29   | So they ate and were well filled,   |                            |
|      | For He gave them their own desire.  |                            |

| 30 | They were not deprived of their craving;                       |

|    | But while their food was still in their mouths,                |
| 31 | The wrath of God came against them,                            |
|    | And slew the stoutest of them,                                 |
|    | And struck down the choice men of Israel.                      |
|    |  |
| 32 | In spite of this they still sinned, And did not believe in His |
