

Season

##. Full of Reverence at Thy Word

Balthasar Münter, ca. 1772

Viola

Tr., Emanuel Cronenwett, 1880

William Batchelder Bradbury, 1849

1. Full of rev - 'rence at Thy Word,
 2. As a sin - ful cast - a - way
 3. Tho' be - cause of sin I'm sad,
 4. O that I could cel - e - brate

Lord, I near Thy hal - lowed board,
 This is all my trust and stay,
 This as - sur - ance makes me glad.
 Worth - i - ly Thy pas - sion great;

Mind - ful of Thy lat - est breath,
 That Thy blood and right - eous - ness Oth - er help - ers there are none, God - for - sa - ken, Thou didst press

And Thy sac - ri - fi - cial death. Me - di - Robes me in a spot - less dress, Fits me Lord, I cleave to Thee a - lone; Hence I To Thy heart my bit - ter - ness! Gol - go - a - tor, who for me Diedst from as a saint to meet God be - come to Thee a - new Thy re - tha - Geth - se - ma - ne - My sins, wrath to set me free, May I as Thy worth - y fore the judg - ment seat: God is re - con - ciled to mem - brance to re - new, And to test - i - fy a - Lamb, pre - pared for Thee! There I see Thee in Thy guest By this feast of life be blest.

 me - Hid, O spot - less Lamb, in Thee.
 gain To Thy love - for sin - ners slain.
 blood, Shed for my e - ter - nal good. A - men.