

Welcome to Trinity

#53 Art. IV “Justification” of the Apology of the Augsburg Confession.

For these reasons, we teach not only how the law may be kept, but also how all that we do becomes pleasing to God, not because we are able, in this life, to keep the law so perfectly and purely, but because we are in Christ, as we shall hereafter show. It is evident, then, that our divines teach the truth concerning good works, and we add, that it is impossible for true faith, which comforts the heart and receives the forgiveness of sins, to be without the love of God. For, through Christ we approach the Father, and when we are reconciled to God through Christ, then only do we believe and determine fully in our hearts, that there is a true and living God, and that we have a Father in heaven, who is constantly looking down upon us, who must be feared, and should be loved on account of his unspeakable favors. Him we should always thank sincerely, and to him accord praise and honor, who hears our prayers, our sighs, and our groanings, as John says in his first Epistle, 4:19 : “We love him, because he first loved us ;” for he gave his Son for us, and remitted our sins. Here John clearly shows, that faith goes before, and love follows. (Henkel Translation, p. 183).

The Lord’s Supper

The Lord's Supper is being celebrated today. Please note that our practice of closed communion with those who are in fellowship with us—members of congregations of the ELDoNA—is not meant to offend, but is the historic practice of the Church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations may be Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42) is the central issue to the common reception of the Sacrament of the Altar. Therefore, we ask GUESTS desiring to commune to speak with the pastor before the service so that he may know that you are a member of a congregation in fellowship with Trinity Lutheran Church.

2 Samuel 22:21-29

²¹ “The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has recompensed me. ²² For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. ²³ For all His judgments were before me; And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them. ²⁴ I was also blameless before Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity. ²⁵ Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in His eyes. ²⁶ With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless; ²⁷ With the pure You will show Yourself pure; And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd. ²⁸ You will save the humble people; But Your eyes are on the haughty, that You may bring them down. ²⁹ For You are my lamp, O LORD; The LORD shall enlighten my darkness.”

1 Corinthians 15:1-10

¹ Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, ² by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. ³ For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴ and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵ and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. ⁶ After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. ⁷ After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. ⁸ Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. ⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am, and

His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

St. Luke 18:9-14

⁹ Also He spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: ¹⁰ “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.’ ¹³ And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me a sinner!’ ¹⁴ I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Communion Psalm: Ant. You will be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with burnt offerings and oblations upon Your altar, O Lord. (v.19). Psalm 51.

"Genevan Psalter," 1547

1. All man - kind fell in Ad - am's fall,
2. Through all man's pow'rs cor - rup - tion creeps
3. From hearts de - praved, to e - vil prone,
4. But Christ, the sec - ond Ad - am, came

One com - mon sin in - fects us all;
And him in dread - ful bond - age keeps;
Flow thoughts and deeds of sin a - lone;
To bear our sin and woe and shame,

From sire to son the bane de - scends,
In guilt he draws his in - fant breath
God's im - age lost, the dark - ened soul
To be our Life, our Light, our Way,

And o - ver all the curse im - pends.
And reaps its fruits of woe and death.
Nor seeks nor finds its heav'n - ly goal.
Our on - ly Hope, our on - ly Stay. A - men.

5. As by one man all mankind fell
And, born in sin, was doomed to hell,
So by one Man, who took our place,
We all received the gift of grace.

6. We thank Thee, Christ; new life is ours,
New light, new hope, new strength, new pow'rs:
This grace our ev'ry way attend
Until we reach our journey's end!
